Dearest Love: —

Have just received your wonderful letter of Thursday. Dear heart, it is just wonderful and I do love you so much. Will answer with a big big one on Monday. Oh, precious, to nestle up now in your arms, what, - what wouldn't I give? Love, dear, I do so wish for the time to come so that you could cuddle and kiss me!

Precious, I am enclosing the applications for Zieder's passport which Mom dear wants you to fill out. Owing to the rush & excitement of the wedding, Mom did not have very much time to attend to it. They also require a sworn statement from someone, saying that he is a born Russian. You can get that from Solomon & Bernatsky. Mom will have Richmond put the seal on here, - but you, honey fill out the application and get this statement as to Zieder's birth. To-morrow Mom will have his pictures taken and just as soon as we hear from you, they will arrange for a hearing at the bureau (passport bureau).

Everything is going along nicely, here and honey dear, I am more than delighted to know how wonderful things are progressing with you. Dear, I only hope they keep up.

Mom dear is feeling fairly well, and wishes me to send you all her love. This precious is a very short letter, but, dear, I shall more than make up for it Monday. I am fairly rushed to-day — you know what a Saturday here is, — and it is all I can do, to get a few words yours home. We are frightfully busy at times — and this is one of the times.

Nina Mayagüez was down to see me last night, and wishes to be remembered to you. Expect to see Carrie to-night — she will be down to the dispensary to meet me and come home to supper with me at my mamis house.

I hall close, Cosey dear, with all my love, hugs and kisses to my darling, precious hubby.

Exclusively
Your little wifie

This, last, is where I feel you again, with all this enclosure
